主题:pre-judging notification: red dot award: design concept 2020

Dear Yadi Guo,

Thank you for participating in Red Dot Award: Design Concept 2020

Congratulations, the below work has been shortlisted for final judging. This means the selected entry will be presented to the jury for a final assessment to decide if it will be selected for an award.

I-register (G50143166)

What to do next:

Prepare the following:

1. If your concept presentation is not in English, you may upload the translated files to us or purchase translation services through us. Please do not make changes to the concept. Login to the participant portal to upload your translated files and complete the final judging application. Deadline: 30 April 2020.
2. Login into the participant portal to complete the final judging application at the Status and Result page, and to upload the translated files. Please complete this process before 30 April 2020 to qualify for the judging.

Thank you.

Best regards

Leong Su Ming
